A Story that Needs to Be Told and Heard

On June 10, 2023, I was invited to attend a launch party for the debut of Amy Hillis' album, Holy Roar. Richard and Amy are close, personal friends, and I knew they had been working hard on this project, but I was not sure what to expect. I walked into the evening with somewhat of a blank slate and was eager to see what would be written.

From the outset of the night, I found myself leaning in more and more. It is hard to describe, but every word spoken and every word sung caused me to long for more. Amy has a way with words and a tremendous ability to articulate those words with depth and authenticity. She would sing, and then speak, sing, and then speak, and with each moment, I was more and more engrossed. My mind and heart were fully engaged and I found myself thinking, "Everyone needs to hear this."

Amy's album is more than a selection of songs, it is a story, and one that needs to be told and heard. It will speak to people from all walks of life and will move them to a place of dependence on and connection to the Lord. I urge you to prayerfully consider bringing Amy to your church or event. Trust me, you will not regret it. I am around lots and lots of musicians, and what Amy offers is unique, needed, and impacting. If I can answer any more direct questions, please feel free to contact me. I would love to share more personally about my experience.
